General Information

Fitness

People of all ages are welcome, but whatever your age, a reasonable level of fitness is required.

A number of sites involve rough walking.

Passports, Visas and Vaccinations

Travellers are responsible for ensuring that they have a valid passport for travel to the relevant countries and that it is valid for at least 6 months after the date of return. Visas are not required for British Passport holders visiting Israel. At the time this brochure was produced no vaccinations or inoculations were required for travel but you may wish to consult your own doctor for advice concerning this.

Travel Advice

For the latest travel advice please visit www.fco.gov.uk, see BBC Ceefax page 470 onwards or call 0870 606 0290.

In exceptional circumstances the itinerary may change.

Further Information and Paying The Balance

Further information regarding any action that may be required will be sent to you approximately 12 weeks before departure. The balance for the tour must be paid at least 10 weeks before departure.

Travel Information

Full travel information, including details of meeting points, flight times and accommodation will be sent to you approximately 2 weeks before departure.

Normally, tickets are not issued but are handed to you at the airport by your tour hosts who will be there to ensure that you depart without a hitch and to help with any last minute difficulties.

Travel Insurance

It is compulsory to have travel insurance for your booking. One option is the Post Office who offer a range of policies at very competitive prices. You can obtain a quote online at www.postoffice.co.uk or you can call Freephone 0800 294 2292 or visit your local post office.

Gratuities

Our normal procedure is to deal with tips on a group basis and these are included in the price. The tour leader will distribute them to the guide, driver and hotels on your behalf. Individual tipping is not recommended unless the circumstances are exceptional.

Cancellation Policy

Refunds on cancelled bookings are at the discretion of the tour operators and the amount refunded will be net of costs incurred at the time of cancellation.
